Message from Inspector Andrew

Welcome to your November Newsletter. I am the new LPC Inspector for your area, following the posting of Insp Colbert to Norwich OPT. Having spent 13 years in the RAF, I have been in the Police for approximately 12 years, working in Thetford for over 10 years followed by just over a year working in custody. I am looking forward to the challenges of my new role, and am looking forward to working with you all in the future.

Message from your Engagement Officer

The Police and Crime Commissioner Lorne Green has regular formal meetings with the Chief Constable of Norfolk Constabulary to hold him to account for the policing service delivered in the county. These meetings are known as the Police Accountability Forum.

Members of the public are welcome to attend these meetings, which are held every other month in locations around the county. Each meeting is followed by a question and answer session, during which there is the opportunity to ask questions of both the PCC and Chief Constable.

Items on the agenda include how the Constabulary is performing against the PCC's policing priorities, how the police budget is being spent and financial planning for the future, and updates on major police investigations and initiatives.

The next meeting is scheduled for 5pm on Tuesday 14 November in South Norfolk at the council offices in Long Stratton.

The meeting will be followed by a public question and answer session at 7pm
